Once the request is raised through above channels, no transaction can be made through the card from immediate effect as the same will be blocked.

Any transactions incurred by the Cardmember prior to the closure / hotlisting of card and which is presented / claimed at a later point by the merchant shall be billed to the Cardmember on the new card that is generated post blocking of the existing credit card for effecting necessary payments towards such transactions. The new card number generated will be reissued / sent only upon request from the Cardmember.

The Bank will accept credit/ payments in the credit card account even after closure of card, Subject to Outstanding payable on card. The Cardmember shall be or is obligated to pay for any transactions which were incurred prior to the closure of the existing card. Bank shall report these outstanding payments on closed credit card (if any) of the Card member to CICs, if unpaid during the subsequent months.

If a credit card has not been activated or used within 30 (thirty) days of card open date., the Bank shall intimate the cardholder about non-usage or non-activation of the card and request the cardholder to activate or start using the card within 7 (seven) days from the date of such intimation. If the cardholder does not start using the card within a period of 7 (seven) days, the card account shall be closed by the Bank.

In case the Bank notices unusual and abnormal transaction patterns in the use of the Card, the Bank will try to establish contact with the customer on the registered phone number of the customer available on its records to verify the bonafideness of the card transaction. Failure on the part of the Bank to establish contact with the customer, the Bank may restrict/terminate the use of the Card without any further notice, if the Bank reasonably believes it necessary for the sake of the Cardholder and for security reasons HDFC Bank can suspend the facility on the Credit Card, if the Cardmember defaults on payment due or exceeds the credit limit extended. The Credit Card must not be used after the Agreement has ended or if the card account is suspended.

With a view to ensure that the Credit Card is being used as per the regulatory guidelines, Terms and Conditions and applicable policies of the Bank, Bank shall have a right to run periodic checks on the Credit Card usage to identify whether there is excessive utilization of credit limit beyond the sanctioned limit in one statement cycle, unusual or excessive utilization at few select merchants, possible collusion with merchant and/or usage towards non-personal/ business related requirements, over-use/ misuse of features/ offers/ programs towards accumulation of undue reward points/ cash back / other benefits amongst others. Based on the usage patterns, if any of these is suspected by the Bank, Bank may take restrictive action on the Credit Card. Such action can be with immediate effect and may include but not be limited to withdrawal of features/ benefits as well as complete termination of the Credit Card. If any such action is taken by the Bank onus will be on customer to provide satisfactory proof of bona fide usage to reinstate the Credit Card and attached features/ benefits as may be deemed fit by the Bank. Bank's decision in this regard shall be final and binding on the customers.

Further to this, in the event of any anomaly noticed at Merchant's end, the Bank has every right to block the terminal and disallow further transactions.

In such a situation, the Cardmember must (subject to any default or other notice required by law) immediately pay HDFC Bank the total outstanding balance on the Account. This includes all amounts due to HDFC Bank under the Agreement, including all transactions and other amounts not yet charged to the Account.
