D) Default and Circumstances

i. Procedure including notice period for reporting a cardholder as defaulter: Grace days of 3 days is allowed from the payment due date on credit card accounts, where payments are not overdue. The payment due date as mentioned on the credit card statement is the date by which clear funds must be credited to the credit card, however 3 grace days are provided to accommodate for processing time of payments. The Bank shall report a credit card account as 'past due' to credit information companies (CICs) and levy late payment charges when a credit card account remains 'past due' for more than 3 days. The number of 'days past due' and late payment charges shall, however, be computed from the payment due date mentioned in the credit card statement.

In the event of default, the Cardmember will be sent reminders from time to time for settlement of any outstanding on the card account, by post, fax, telephone, e-mail, Mobile App Notification, SMS messaging and/ or engaging third parties to remind, follow up and collect dues. Any third party so appointed, shall adhere fully to the code of conduct on debt collection.

In case the cardholder fails to make payment of either the Minimum Amount Due or the total amount due, under each monthly billing statement, the bank shall notify the customer of such non-payment and its intention to report the cardholder as defaulter to the Credit Information Companies (CIC) in case the cardholder fails to pay the Minimum Amount Due or the total amount due within 7 (seven) days.

ii. Procedure for withdrawal of default report and the period within which the default report would be withdrawn after settlement of dues

In case the cardholder makes the payment of either the Minimum Amount Due or the total amount due after the expiry of 7 (seven) days' notice period, the Bank shall update the status within 30 (thirty) days from the date of settlement of dues. In case a transaction is disputed by customer, a temporary credit equivalent to the amount disputed by customer will be provided to the Credit Card account of the customer.

iii. Recovery procedure in case of default

In case of default, upon a demand made by the bank, if the balance amount due on the card is not repaid within the prescribed time; bank shall have a right of lien and set-off without notice on all monies belonging to the Cardmember held in any account or in custody of the bank. During settlement of redemption, in case available Cash Points balance is lesser than Points required for the transaction, the bank reserves rights to debit the differential amount on the Customers Card/Account.

iv. Recovery of dues in case of death / permanent incapacitation of cardholder

The death or incapacity of Cardmember including insolvency, dissolution, bankruptcy or winding up, shall automatically result in cancellation of the card issued to the Cardmember. The card would also be liable to be suspended on instructions from any Government or Regulatory body. On cancellation or suspension of the card, all amounts outstanding on the card account shall be deemed to have become due immediately. Notwithstanding the Cardmember's obligation to pay all outstanding amounts forthwith, Bank shall be entitled to recover the same in accordance with the relevant laws in force.
